

MAY WEDDINGS ARE OF INTEREST TO SOCIETY

Continued from First Page.

families of Virginia and lived formerly in Lynchburg.

Mr. Goddard is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bartlett Goddard and is a member of several prominent clubs, including the Calumet and Republican clubs.

The wedding will take place on May 25.

Miss Anita Morle-Smith's daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Morle-Smith, will be married to James McAlpin Pyle at the house of her parents, 29 West Fifty-fourth street, to-morrow afternoon. Owing to mourning in the family of Mr. Pyle only relatives and a few intimate friends will attend the ceremony, which will be performed by the bride's father. The Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dike of Princeton will assist Dr. Morle-Smith. The bride will have no attendants. David McAlpin Pyle, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Francis Shaw, to Thomas Dickson, which will take place at the house of the bride's parents, 31 West Fifty-fifth street, on Tuesday, will be private, only the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom being asked for the ceremony. Miss Shaw will have no attendants and there will be no best man. The reception following the ceremony will be large.

Society will be interested in the wedding of Miss Valerie Worthington, a daughter of Mrs. Henry F. Worthington, to Frederick Haywood Roper, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roper of Pelham Manor, which will be celebrated in St. Barnabas's Church at Irvington-on-Hudson on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Royal Balcom, rector of the church, will officiate.

A special train will leave the Grand Central station at 2:54 P. M. for those of this city who will attend the ceremony and reception which will be held afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Lannan Bull.

The bride will have as her attendants Miss Gertrude Carrington, Mrs. Lowry Gilbert and Mrs. Archibald Douglas. R. Clifford Black will act as best man and the ushers will include Witherbee Clark, Theodore Montgomery Hill, Walter Cook, Jr. and Henry Haywood Fox.

Mr. Roper gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night.

Another wedding of Tuesday will be that of Miss Katherine Oakley, daughter of Mrs. Ralph Oakley of this city, to Edward S. Perot, which will take place in All Angels' Church at 1:30 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Ashley Morgan, assistant rector of the church.

Miss Sarah Lee Perot, sister of the bridegroom, will be Miss Oakley's chief attendant. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Marjorie Shytle, Gladys Kane, Lucy Lawrence of this city; Helen Canfield, Orieville Wooster of Yonkers; Eugene Root, Adelaide Canfield of Detroit; and Esther Mohland of Pittsburgh, all of whom were students with the bride at Briardale School.

Arthur Elliott will act as best man, and Charles C. Lawrence, Gerard Jackson, Roderick McAlpin, Charles Reed, Edward M. Radway, James Howard and Stanley McCormick will be ushers.

After the ceremony there will be a reception for relatives and intimate friends at the house of the bride's mother, 125 Riverside Drive.

The bridal party will take a motoring trip to Garden City for luncheon to-day, and to-morrow night Mrs. Oakley will give a dinner dance at her house.

Mr. Perot gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night at Delmonico's.

The marriage of Miss Mary Van Zile, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Van Zile, to the Rev. Gerald A. Cunningham senior curate of St. George's Church, will take place at noon to-morrow in Trinity Chapel. The Rev. Herbert N. Cunningham of Watertown, Conn., father of the bridegroom, will officiate and Bishop David H. Greer will pronounce benediction.

The Rev. Dr. John McKelridge, vicar of Trinity Chapel; the Rev. Dr. William H. Vibbert, former vicar of Trinity Chapel, and the Rev. Hugh Breckhead, rector of St. George's Church, will occupy places in the chancel.

The bride will have her sisters, the Misses Sally and Harriet Lee Van Zile, as her only attendants. Raymond Cunningham, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man. The ushers will be the Rev. Malbone H. Breckhead of Tuxedo, the Rev. George Norton, Lawrence Whittemore and Martin Taylor of this city. Charles Buckingham and Roscoe Conkling Hatch of Watertown, Conn.

After the ceremony a small reception and wedding breakfast will take place at the house of the bride's parents, 404 West Twentieth street.

The bridegroom gave his farewell bachelor dinner on Friday night at the Players Club.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss May A. Weatherbee, second daughter of the late Edwin H. Weatherbee of this city, to Dr. Samuel Milbank. It will take place in St. Thomas's Church, Manhattan, on June 1st at noon. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the ceremony will be quietly celebrated, the wedding breakfast to follow at

MISS KATHERIN OAKLEY

Virginia Crawford, Sarah De Lamater, Ina Macnee and Constance Hume. S. Pierre Taylor was best man. The ushers were Edward Albro Kellogg, brother of the bride; C. Alan Hudson, Richard C. Klugeschild, Herbert B. Lattimer, Francis N. Bangs, Edward J. Bermingham and Frederick S. Lellenbaugh, Jr.

After the ceremony there was a reception for relatives and intimate friends at the house of the bride's parents, 329 West Seventy-fifth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hodges sailed for Europe on the Celtic on Thursday. They will live in Allenhurst on their return.

The engagement was announced recently of Miss Beatrice Evans, daughter of Mrs. Helen Evans of St. Charles, Ill., to McCready Sykes of this city and Boise Idaho.

Miss Evans is a native of England and for the past winter has lived with her as his brother's best man and there will be among the ushers three other brothers of the bridegroom.

The wedding breakfast for relatives and a few intimate friends will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Dusen, 182 East Thirty-fifth street. Mr. Kilbourne and his bride will pass the summer in Englewood, N. J.

Mrs. S. Pomeroy Colt of Providence will sail on the Lusitania May 8 to attend the wedding of her son, Roswell M. Colt, and Miss Borrowdale Chipman, daughter of Clarence Chipman, which will be celebrated in St. Paul's Church, Knightsbridge, London, on June 1. Mr. Chipman was formerly High Commissioner of the Hudson's Bay Company. Soon after the wedding Mrs. Colt will go to the Continent to remain for the summer.

The wedding of Miss Ellen Farnsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Farnsworth, Griswold Haven. The reception to follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stearns, 107 Park avenue, will be limited to relatives and a few intimate friends.

Among the passengers on the Celtic last week was Mrs. E. Ruzema de Grove, who will remain in Europe until the early part of October. She will make some visits in London and Paris and will go later to Royat les Bains and Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jay Schieffelin, who have been identified with Bar Harbor for nearly twenty years, have recently purchased from David B. Ogden Tanquility Farm in Ashville, Me., which is just across the bay from Bar Harbor. Mr. and Mrs. Schieffelin will pass the summer at their recently acquired place.

J. Montgomery Strong sailed last week for Santo Domingo, West Indies, where he will remain until the end of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Havemeyer, who have been for the winter with Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer at 1 East Sixty-sixth street, will pass the summer at Bay Berry Point, Islip, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Sheldon have taken a place at Southampton, where they will go in June to pass the summer. Mrs. Sheldon will go to Europe next month, returning in July.

Mrs. John R. Drexel is at French Lick Springs and will return here late this week. During her mother's absence from New York Miss Alice Drexel has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Drexel and their family will pass the summer in Newport.

After spending the greater part of the winter in Nassau, Mr. and Mrs. George Winthrop Folsom returned ten days ago and were at the Hotel Belmont previous to making a visit in Tuxedo. They will soon open their place in Lenox, Mass., where they will remain for the summer.

Mrs. Timothy Cheesman of The Briars, Garrison, N. Y., will give a luncheon at Delmonico's on Tuesday.

MISS JOANNA A. MORGAN

Waynes Court, the country place of the bride's mother, being only for a small number of guests.

The bride will have her sister, Mrs. Clark Peter Reed, as her only attendant. Harold Milbank will be his brother's best man.

One of the early June weddings will be that of Miss Helen Marguerite Pontreux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pontreux, to Midshipman Halloway Hubstead Frost, U. S. N., which will take place on Wednesday, June 6.

The wedding of Miss Harriet Francis of Troy, N. Y., daughter of the late Charles Spencer Francis, late Ambassador to Austria-Hungary, to Marshall Harst, a son of Dr. Harst, will take place on May 29 in Troy.

Invitations have been issued by the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Madison C. Peters for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Hart Peters, to Harry Alexander Stevens, which will take place on Tuesday evening in the Pilgrim Church, Madison avenue and 124th street.

Miss Christine Hinchings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector M. Hinchings, will be married to Sinclair Hamilton, a son of the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Hamilton of this city, on Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the house of her parents, 294 West Ninety-third street. Only relatives have been invited for the ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. Dr. William P. Merrill, pastor of the Episk Presbyterian Church. There will be a small reception afterward, for which only relatives and intimate friends have been asked.

Mrs. Harvey MacIntosh of Pittsburgh will be the bride's only attendant. Mr. Hamilton will have his brother, William Peter Hamilton, as best man. The ushers will be Lyette B. Dow, Kenneth M. Sykes, Geoffrey K. Kline of this city and Edward H. Hart of Washington.

Miss Florence Johnston of Brooklyn, daughter of a former marriage of Mrs. William McCarrall, wife of Public Service Commissioner McCarrall, will be married to George Fuller Kelley of Providence, R. I., in St. Bartholomew's Church next Saturday at noon.

The bride will be given away by her stepfather. She will have as attendants her sister, Miss Grace Leslie Johnston, as maid of honor, and the Misses Anne Hartline, Margaret Chase, Alice Mott, Estelle McCarrall, Louise Robinson and Emily Brower as bridesmaids.

Arthur F. Kelley, Jr., will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Harris and Edward Adriance, Arthur Gilmore, Walter Johnston, Butlerford Ansel, George Buell, Cyrus Brown and Horton Pushe.

After the ceremony there will be a reception for relatives and friends at the Hotel Gotham.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs. R. M. P. Phelps of Woodmere, L. I., for the wedding of her daughter, Miss Bessie M. Pond Phelps, to Dyer Pearl, Jr., of this city, which will take place on Tuesday, May 29, in St. Bartholomew's Church. The Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of St. Thomas's Church, will officiate.

After the ceremony there will be a large reception held at the Hotel Gotham.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Henderson Bullard of Flushing, L. I., to Charles Eastace Kneeland of this city. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin G. Sutliff of Lockport, N. Y., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Katherine Sutliff, to Horace Griswold Ely of this city.

A wedding of interest last week was that of Miss Margaret Kellogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hyde Kellogg, to James Sylvester Hedges of this city, which took place on Wednesday afternoon in All Angels' Church, the Rev. S. De Lancy Townsend officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a white satin pearl embroidered gown trimmed with old duchesse lace and a court train edged with orange blossoms and lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Pauline Haggerty and the bridesmaids were the Misses Helen Paddock, Elsie Stevenson, sister, Miss Maud Evans, in Idaho.

Mr. Sykes is well known in New York, where he has practised law for a few years. He is a contributor to several magazines, is a member of the Players, Authors and Princeton clubs of this city.

The wedding probably will take place in September.

The wedding of Miss Sophia Burr Oppen, daughter of Frederick Burr Oppen, to Harold Plimpton, a son of T. Albert Plimpton of New Centre, Mass., will take place on Saturday, June 1, in Christ Episcopal Church, this city.

Invitations will soon be sent out by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Van Dusen for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen H. Van Dusen, to Horace O. Kilbourne, which will be celebrated on May 15 in the Church of St. Ignace Loyola at 11 o'clock.

Miss Van Dusen will have but one attendant, her sister, Mrs. Frederick Drummond Hogg of Ottawa. Dr. Joseph Kilbourne of St. Vincent's Hospital will act worth, to Alfred Lee Loomis of this city will be celebrated in Boston on June 22. Mr. Loomis is the son of Mrs. Henry Loomis of Tuxedo, and he is a cousin of the Secretary of War, Henry L. Stimson. His sister, Miss Julia Loomis, was married to Landon K. Thorne last summer in Tuxedo, when Miss Farnsworth was one of the bridesmaids.

Miss Anne Adelaide Stearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Noble Stearns, Jr., will be married to Stephen Peabody, Jr., on Tuesday afternoon in St. James's Protestant Episcopal Church. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Bowles and Mrs. Margaret Thorne. Dr. James Nagle will act as best man and the ushers will be Lido S. Bryce Wing, John D. Wing, Crawford Burton, Edmund H. Boyesen, John Noble Stearns, 3d and Edwin Kane. Mr. Peabody is a grandson of the late George

Mrs. De Lancy Nicoll and her daughter, Miss Josephine Nicoll, who is now quite recovered from her recent serious illness, will go to the French Lick Springs on Wednesday. They expect to go to Bad Nauheim in Germany early in July to remain for several months.

For the benefit of the Baptist Home for the Aged the Symphony Club of New York will give a concert on the evening of May 9 in the chapel of the home, which is at 116 East Sixty-eighth street. David Mannes will conduct and Miss Estelle Liebling will be the soloist. Tickets at 51 each may be had of Mrs. John A. Hartwell, 27 East Sixty-third street, or from the committee, Mrs. Frederick H. Mills, Mrs. Ashbel P. Frye, Mrs. George H. Fox, Mrs. E. M. Leask, Mrs. Frederick Littlefield, Mrs. Wendell C. Phillips and Mrs. Charles W. Saunders. The club has been the means of raising nearly $5,000 for charity during the winter. Rehearsals are being held weekly at Rumford Hall.

Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley has been making some visits in Washington and on her return will go to her country place in Hempstead, L. I.

Among the dinners of last week was one given by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Proctor of Boston at the St. Regis. Mrs. Proctor was formerly Miss Tina Riker. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Remsen Strong, Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel P. Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Riker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Amory Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Riker, Dr. and Mrs. Walter F. Chapman, Miss M. Haskell, Mrs. Margaret Strong and Miss Lavinia Graves.

Sailing on the Mauretania last week were Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloan. They will remain in Europe until the end of June, when they will go to their country place in Lenox, Mass. Mrs. John E. Alexandre and the Misses Alexandre, who were in Lenox the early part of the week, sailed on the Celtic last Thursday to remain abroad for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones and Miss Sadie Jones are sailing on the France next Thursday. They will return late in June and will go to Newport for the remainder of the summer.

Mrs. James Brown Potter went to Richmond, Va., last week for a short visit previous to her departure for Europe next Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp were passengers on the Mauretania on Wednesday. They will return in July and will go to Southampton where they have leased Tenacre again for the summer.

Jules Bacho and his daughter, Miss

Continued on Third Page.

BRIDESMAIDS AT CLEWS-LYNCH WEDDING

LEFT TO RIGHT MISS MARJORIE WINANT, MRS. ARTHUR FOSTER, MISS MARGARETBROUGHTON, MISS PEGGY LYNCH, MISS LOUISE LYNCH, MISS MAUD BUSH, MISS ADELE GRENET, MISS LOUISE FREEMAN, MRS. W. G. WRIGHTSON.